Approve Requisition - REQ3100

Purchasing > Next Year > Maintenance > Approve Requisition

Only users who have permission to approve next year requisitions can access this page.

This page is used to approve/disapprove individual requisition items, and, if necessary, return requisitions to the originator for additional editing.

You can elect to approve all items on the requisition, or disapprove selected line items and approve all other line items. If you are the final approver, the vendor and account codes must be completed before the requisition is approved. If you want another individual to review the requisition before you review it, you can insert an approver prior to your name. If you want another individual to approve the requisition after you, you can add an approver after your name.

- Requisitions created in the current accounting period that have all general journal transactions in the current accounting period are displayed in the current and the next accounting period.
- Requisitions created in the next accounting period that have all general journal transactions in the next accounting period are displayed in the next accounting period only.
- Requisitions created in the current accounting period that have general journal transactions in the next accounting period are displayed in the next accounting period only.
- Requisitions created in the current accounting period that have no general journal transactions (saved requisitions) are displayed in the current and the next accounting period.
- Requisitions created in the next accounting period that have no general journal transactions (saved requisitions) are displayed in the next accounting period only.

Note: If you enter an account code that is not authorized on your user profile, you are prompted to enter a valid account code. You can only change the account code to an account code listed on your user profile or adjust the Amount and Percent columns. Purchase order encumbrance transactions and purchase orders are produced after the requisition has completed the approval process.

Bid processing notes

- Requisitions with partial line items that were awarded through bid processing cannot be returned.
- Line items that were awarded through bid processing cannot be retrieved.
- Requisitions with partial line items that were awarded through bid processing can be approved with all disapproved line items.
