Deductions

EmployeePortal > Inquiry > Deductions

This page is used to view your current payroll deduction information. If applicable, the employer's contributions to the deductions are also displayed in addition to your withholding status and the number of exemptions.

If you have requested modifications to your deductions and those changes are not displayed, the LEA has yet to process the changes.

If this page is not enabled, check with your EmployeePortal administrator as the LEA may have opted to not allow access.

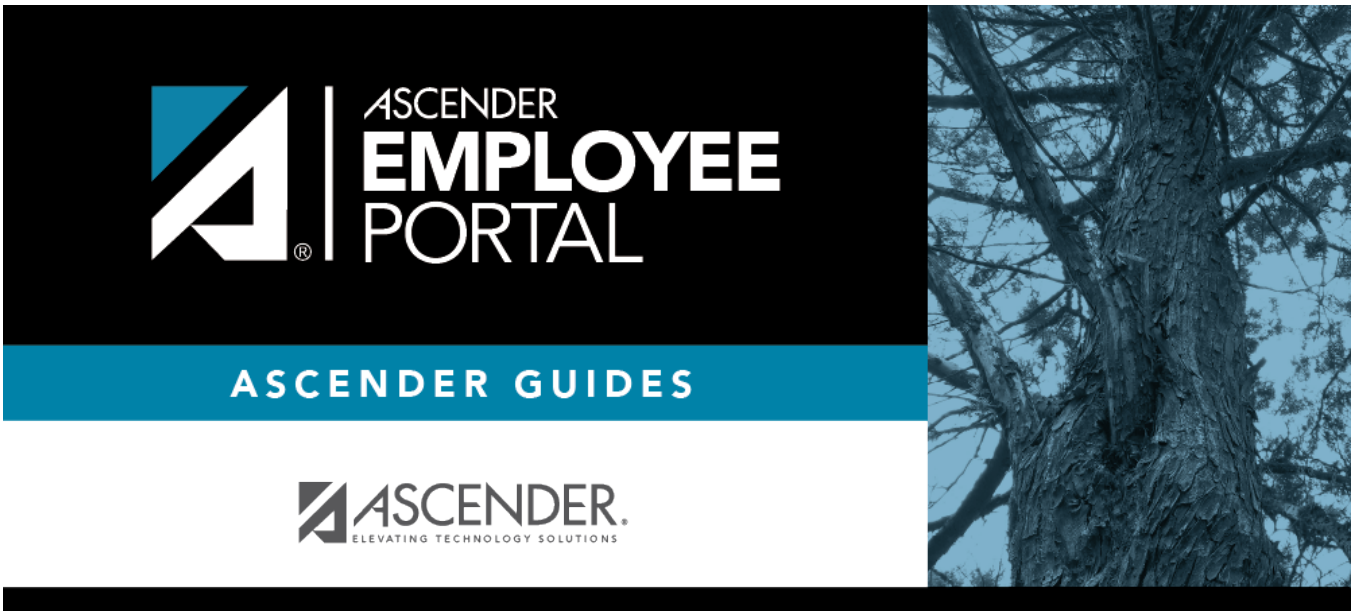

If a message is available from your LEA, it is displayed in red at the top of the page.

View deduction data:

The Frequency displays the payroll frequency in which you are active.
