extradutycode

Table of Contents

Click ⌄ to select the two-digit code of the additional job assignment. The drop down can include type G and type S extra duty codes. If the employee does not have any extra duties entered on the Pay Info tab, no codes are displayed.

Notes:

The type G extra duty code can be split between account codes. The extra duty job code cannot be split between job codes. It can only exist with one job code.

The type S extra duty code can only have an XTRA job code.
