Approve Bundle Requisitions - REQ3230

Purchasing > Maintenance > Approve Bundle Requisitions

This page allows the final approver in the Purchasing approval path to approve or return requisition bundles. Once a requisition bundle is approved, the bundled requisitions are assigned a single purchase order number.

The page consists of three grids:

- The top grid displays the requisition bundle information.
- The middle grid displays the requisition information for the bundle.
- The bottom grid displays the requisition line items.
